

Local Resource Worksheet

Campuses have a variety of resources available to their students and student organizations. Take some time to identify resources your chapter has available to them.

Identify Offices on Campus That Focus on Services & Resources Related to Marginalized Identities

Office & Contact Information	Resources Provided	Social Media

Examples of Offices: LGBTQIA+ Centers, Cultural Centers, Religious Services on Campus, Women or Gender Centers, Accessibility Services, TRIO, Resources for First-Generation College Students.

Identify Trainings/Resources Your Campus Has Available to Students & Student Organizations

Training Title	Focus of Training	Office & Contact Providing Training

Examples of Trainings: Resources for students with specific identities, bystander Intervention, Safe Zone Training, diversity and equity trainings, Heritage Month Celebrations, signature events of offices you found above.

Build a Plan With the Above Information

You have worked to identify a lot of resources and tools available to you. Odds are you don't have time to implement all those tools and resources immediately. Identify what topics your chapter wants to focus on so you can prioritize resources related to those in your plan. Once you have priority areas being working, schedule trainings and promote resources within the chapter.
