Purple Legionnaire

Position Description

Purple Legionnaire Position Description

The Purple Legionnaire (PL) is the primary advisor to an undergraduate chapter in Phi Gamma Delta. He provides advice, guidance and support to the chapter and its officers on all aspects of chapter operations in accordance with the Fraternity's Laws and policies. The PL also works closely with members of the Board of Chapter Advisors (BCA), house corporation (HC) and university/college administration.

While not a prerequisite, it is highly recommended that this position be filled by a brother in reasonable proximity to the chapter to best offer in-person interactions and support.

Qualifications

- Initiated graduate brother of Phi Gamma Delta.
- Commitment to the Fraternity's mission, vision, values, Laws and policies.
- Able to collaborate with others and possesses strong verbal, written and interpersonal skills.
- Willing to provide and accept feedback for performance improvement.
- Must enjoy working with collegiate men and be willing to offer advice and guidance to strengthen the undergraduate chapter.
- Must be able to serve as role model and lead by example.
- Prior advising and/or coaching experience preferred.

Responsibilities of the Purple Legionnaire

Undergraduate Chapter Support
